The Original "Frozen Sfuzzi" 8

Frozen house speciality of Prosecco and white peach nectar

Original "Cipriani" Bellini

Invented in 1948 at Harry's Bar in Venice. Giuseppe Cipriani (head bartender) had a fondness for Italian white peaches. When he tried the simple combination of puréed white peaches and Prosecco, he knew he had something.

Moretti

Moretti is the premium Italian beer that Italians prefer. A smooth, well-balanced pilsner that's a step up from the ordinary; a perfect match for fine Italian foods, for special occasions, or for anytime!

Stella Artois

Although Belgium is best known internationally for its ales, the so-called "table beers," bottom-fermented pilsner lagers such as Stella Artois head the list for domestic consumption.

Peroni Nastro Azzurro

An international beer produced by the Peroni Brewery of Rome. It is a premium pilsner. The taste is that of a typical pilsner with a hint of citrus and well-ripened hops.
